

AT CENTRAL COLLEGE.

The First Recital by Pupils for the Scholastic Year.

The first recital for the present scholastic year by the School of Music, Central college, was given on Monday evening before a large and enthusiastic audience, the following choice selections constituting the programme:

1. Concerto, C Minor (first movement) with Hummel Cadenza. . . . . Mozart Miss Margaret Aull.
2. Concerto. . . . . Mendelssohn Miss Norman.
3. Waltz, D Flat. . . . . Chopin Miss Jo Hinesley.
4. Vocal, Thou'rt Like Unto a Lovely Flower. . . . . Wilson G. Smith Miss Lyons.
5. Violin Solo, Cavatina. . . . . Raff Miss Biggs.
6. Piano Solo:
a. Simple Air. . . . . Tbone
b. Overture Etude. . . . . Kullak Miss Tiedale.
7. Air de Ballet. . . . . Chaminade Miss Lella Tucker.
8. Two Songs:
a. The Merry, Merry Lark. . . . . Nevin
b. Without Thee. . . . . d'Hardelet Miss Frances Bowen Smith.
9. Piano Solo:
a. Barcarolle, F Minor. . . . . Rubinstein
b. Caprice, A Minor. . . . . Schytte Miss Ash.
10. Third Suite for Violin and Piano Ries
a. Moderato. . . . .
b. Bourree. . . . .
c. Adagio. . . . .
d. Gondoliera. . . . .
e. Perpetuum Mobile. . . . . Messrs. Stark and Conrad.

The entire programme was exceptionally well rendered. An attestation of the excellence of which was given in the close attention of those present notwithstanding the uncomfortably crowded and heated condition of the hall.

The rendition of the first movement of Mozart's C Minor Concerto with Hummel Cadenza, by Miss Margaret Aull, was a noteworthy performance. The young lady has been heard frequently on former occasions, but never before in a number technically and musically so demanding. The memorization of a work so pretentious and intricate in its solo parts and ensemble is an accomplishment in itself. Added to which clearness, precision and musical delivery made Miss Aull's presentation of the difficult selection a highly creditable appearance.

The violin solo by Miss Biggs was warmly received. Her broad and soulful rendition of the well known Cavatina proved that she is abundantly able to deliver a number in the cantabile style with complete effect.

Miss Ash, who entered upon her duties as teacher of piano and harmony at the beginning of the year, contributed much interest to the programme with her double number. The Rubinstein stein Barcarolle in F minor was played in a beautifully singing style, while the Caprice of Schytte, a charming contrast to her first selection, was given with the greatest freedom and esprit. Miss Ash possesses superior attainments as a pianist, and the School of Music is to be congratulated upon such a valuable addition to its faculty.

The last number was a suitable close to the programme. Messrs. Conrad and Stark have on several former occasions been heard in choice selections of chamber music by Haydn, Beethoven and Grieg, and their excellent rendition of the Third Suite by Ries on Monday evening was not only educational to the students but highly enjoyable to all.
